

CALL FOR CODE START HERE

Thanks for your commitment to the Call for Code, it means a lot to us that you are joining IBM in the world's largest developer challenge to address the broader needs of society.

We've pulled together everything you need to know to take your organization through the Call for Code successfully in these steps.

We will be sending you an email with a unique organization registration link for your developers to use when signing up for the challenge.

- ☐ Download your digital kit: <https://ibm.biz/callforcode-pushKit>
- ☐ Open your kit – inside is a single folder named PUSH with all you'll need.
- ☐ Start internal communication for Call for Code. Build your plan with the first nurture email (emailSample1.pdf), overview presentation (overviewPresentation.pdf), social tile (pushSocial.png) and example tweet from the FAQ (pushFAQ.pdf), and the sample postcard (samplePostcard.pdf) and table top (sampleTableTop.pdf) signs.
- ☐ Get your developers registered on Call for Code (emailSample1.pdf).
- ☐ Sign up for the Call for Code slack team and join the Captain's channel. This is your place to ask questions to the IBM Call for Code team.
- ☐ Use the field guide to understand best practices for the Call for Code Day (CallforCodeDayPlan.pdf).
- ☐ Get your developers ready-to-go with Free training (emailSample2.pdf).
- ☐ Use the detailed planning worksheet to plan and run your Call for Code Day (CallforCodeDayPlan-Worksheet.xlsx).
- ☐ Recognize your team for their participation in the day (emailSample3.pdf).
- ☐ Keep your teams going with nurture emails through the challenge (emailSample4.pdf, emailSample5.pdf).

